

I fully support that portion of the NPRM dealing with the 5280-5400 kHz band. This band is only 150 kHz wide, therefore allocating different segments for data and voice modes would be unduly restrictive. I support the ARRL petition to make this band available to all modes of operation on a co-equal basis.